

Alois Benedict Kruse

November 2, 1913 - May 31, 2009

Alois Benedict Kruse, our tender loving father, grandfather, and great-grandfather was received into the arms of Jesus his Lord and Savior on May 31, 2009. He was born on November 2, 1913 in Selma, TX. He leaves his legacy of faith and devotion with 108 family members. His devotion to his Lord was evident in every part of his life in that he was true to his faith: his love for Berniece, providing for his ten children, and his dedication to a good work ethic. He was a first generation German immigrant, helping his father and family farm the land that is now Northeast Lakeview College near Selma. He is preceded in death by his loving wife, Berniece Biesenbach of 66 years, parents, Nicholas E. Kruse and Anna Hillmeyer, sisters, Dorothy Friesenhahn and husband Hugo, Marie Ott and husband Tony, Barbara Bezdek and husband John, brothers Leonard and wife Mabel, Gerard and wife Henrietta, and great-grandchildren Melissa Kruse and Mitchell Kruse. He is survived by brother-in-law Auburn Biesenbach and sister-in-law Dorothy Bean, ten children and spouses, Clay and Mitzi Kruse, Janie and Jessie Balderas, David and Lana Kruse, Walt and Dee Kruse, Nancy Kruse, Barbie and Art Penaloza, Mike and Cyndy Kruse, Joyce and Richard Gaines, Cheri and Marvin Cobb and Terry Foerster. His 32 grandchildren, their spouses and 39 great-grandchildren all cherish his example and memory. We will all miss his gentleness, acceptance of others and how he always lent a helping hand.
