Alonzo David King, Jr.

April 23, 1931 to December 17, 2010

Alonzo David King, Jr. known by family and friends as Bill was received into the arms of the Lord on December 17, 2010 at the age of 79. He was born on April 23, 1931 in San Antonio, Texas in his family home to Alonzo David King, Sr. and Joda Deck King. He was married to his high school sweetheart, Daisy Mae Hamilton on September 24, 1950. They had been married 60 years. Upon graduation from Brackenridge High School, Bill joined the Air National Guard. In October of 1950 his Air National Guard Unit was activated and Bill became one of the 182nd Fighting Wing of the United States Air Force serving in the Korean War. After serving in the Air Force he was employed as a draftsman at Jack Amens Photogeometric Engineers and the Texas Highway Department. Bill then went on to serve 37 years in the Civil Service at Kelly AFB retiring in 1986. Bill's hobbies included woodworking and gardening. He loved working with his hands and he could build, fix or grow anything. Bill was a loving, caring and thoughtful man, husband and father, had a great sense of humor and will be missed by all who knew him. Bill was preceded in death by his parents. He is survived by his beloved wife, Daisy and his adored daughter, Tammy Diane Ann and her fiance, Albert Dietrich, his sister Patricia Lally, and numerous nieces and nephews.
