

Alonzo Perry, Jr.

July 12, 1950 - October 12, 2023

Alonzo Perry Jr. was born on July 12, 1950, In Detroit, Michigan. He was the third of five children born to the late Alonzo Perry Sr. and Ora T Perry. Being the first boy, he was affectionately called “Man”, usually pronounced “Maine”. He embraced the grace of Christ during his early years at Williams Chapel Baptist Church in Detroit, Michigan. Alonzo’s spirituality was exemplified in his relationships, his actions, and deeds. Throughout his vibrant life, Alonzo displayed a passion for sports, particularly excelling in basketball, football, track, and baseball during his time at Kettering High School. His dedication led him to earn an athletic scholarship to Oakland Community College Orchard Ridge. Beyond sports, Alonzo relished friendly card games and cherished the camaraderie of his friends and loved ones.

When Alonzo joined the Army he continued to play basketball for his company. While in the military he met and married the love of his life, Lee Alma Phillips, an Army Nurse in 1974. The couple was later blessed with their delightful son, Preston. Together the family continued their dedicated military service with moves to Georgia, Kentucky, and a tour of duty in Germany and finally San Antonio Texas. SGT Alonzo Perry Jr and his family were very proud of the many contributions and sacrifices they made for our country. Alonzo also proudly worked for his son’s landscaping business. Alonzo and Preston partnered in doing small house repairs. He actively mentored his nephews and was elated with his grandchildren, who adored their “Popa”. He found much joy in following and assisting his grandchildren with their schooling, sports, finances and in making good life decisions. After his retirement, Alonzo pursued many of his hobbies; including range shooting, smoking meats (especially turkeys), caring for his dogs and cats, visiting family and friends, and staying in touch (in person and by phone) with everyone he knew, especially the Elderly.

Together, Alonzo and his wife, Lee established and operated Isaiah’s House, an assisted living home for the greater San Antonio area, leaving a lasting impact on the lives of many. Known for his unwavering dedication to family, Alonzo always kept his siblings, nieces, nephews and cousins close, sharing countless captivating tales of his life adventures and family milestones. His guidance and wisdom were a source of inspiration for all those around him.

“ Cousin, I'll miss you talking about how I used to follow you around when I was a little girl. If I could have, I would have followed you all around the world.

The joy of having you in my life, and the pain of letting you be free, it's getting the better part of me! I know you wouldn't want me to be sad, but letting you go, it hurts so bad!

Lee, Preston, Jasmine and our Perry-Banks family tree ... We thank and praise God for letting us be ... In His Peace...

“ *It is with heavy hearts that we extend condolences to Lee and Preston. We will miss the friendly chats that we always received from Alonzo from across the street. He was never too busy to stop and talk with us and extend or give needed advice to us when we were in our yard cutting grass or trimming trees. We will truly miss our neighbor and friend.
