“ Mr. Baird, you were a very bright hour to Tax Day. Each year we caught up on "Life". So many smiles and history you shared. Gosh, Tax Day is just going to be another day with no jokes and family travels.

Our loss here on earth is heavens gain. I guess that's a physics thing, every action is a reaction. But none of us wanted to apply that science.

May I express my condolences to those who have lost a major part in their life. You were like the North Star you centered and guided those around you.

May the "rainbow bridge" provide you steps to all those who have made the journey in front of you.

“ Mr. Baird was a beloved customer at our Walgreens. He always joked with us and had a smile on his face. We are very saddened to know he has passed but rejoice that He is in Heaven with loved ones and we will see him again some day. Prayers being lifted up for the family.

“ Hello my name is Allen folsie. I was one of the nephews of my uncle Polly. That's what we all called him. You will be deeply missed. Some of the memories I have of Uncle Polly was when we all took our family vacations. Everybody would load up their station wagons and head out to places like Silverton Colorado Durango Colorado Albuquerque New Mexico and many more places. In between stops we would set up our tents campout by a campfire telling joke about anything. We would all have our CB radios in our cars and while we're on the road we would all chit chat back and forth. This was back in the '70s

Now I was a very young man but I will have the memories forever. Uncle Polly was really a man of few words. Once he said what he was going to say that was it. Conversation over. Lolo

If he liked you he would talk if he didn't well that tells you something. He was definitely straightforward and to the point. But he was a very wise man. And I always listened to him. Even on our last conversation. I always said yes sir. I had actually planned on calling him soon. On our last conversation he wanted us to visit him in San Antonio. To go out to eat and catch up on all of our conversations.

Told me last time that we are always welcomed. And on our last conversation he said love you very much and also told me he felt that God had forgot about him and wondered why he was still around. God did not forget you.. you are with him the lord now. I told him you're not done yet. I told him to hang in there. He said I'm doing the best I can. And that was the last time I talked to him. Now he's with the Lord up in heaven with all of our family members who had passed on before. So Uncle Polly I say to you it is time to rest and to be reunited with your wife Rosa Lee Baird. You are now reunited with all your other family members. God bless you Uncle Polly love you miss you. And one day I'll see you on the other side.

Your nephew

“ I first meet Polly in the early 50's. We worked together for many years and became good friends. We had a lot of quality time together for many years. We called each other frequently especially on each others birthdays. After he retired he would drive to Houston to visit with me and I would drive to San Antonio to visit with him. I will miss him but I will never forget him. Sorry I was not able to attend his funeral, but was there in spirit.

“ I remember Uncle Polly so so well. He was a great Southern Gentleman. He would make you laugh and then sometimes, make you very sentimental. This world was a better place with him in it. However, I know that he is with Aunt Rosie and Wayne and Tricia and he is at peace.

My heart hurts for Debbie and Darlene and the entire family. I will see you all on Thursday

“ It was a bit of a surprise when Uncle Polly called & said he was coming to see us in Florida. Sure as the sunrise there he was at our front door. We had a delightful time going over all the pictures of family that he brought. Uncle Oliver had done some genealogy work and wanted it to be given to all the family. We laughed and remembered lots of things. Some of the jokes remain between Uncle Polly & us....we aint tellin’.

That is the best way for me to remember our loved ones, cuttin'-up & being themselves. I always enjoyed back when all 3 Baird-Boys got together. Those are some of my best memories. Now they are together again enjoying their rewards. It is my firm belief that we will see them again on the other side. To Debbie & Darlene & all the rest of the family we send our love and condolences. We wish we could be there in person but it looks like between doctor appts. & grandchild care we face too tight of a window for travel that far. We are with ya'll in spirit.

My memories of Polly and Rosie began at an early age, 3-4 yrs old. They would come to our place, we would go to San Antonio, or meet them at Pa Sam's in Brady. They were all good memories of family, grand parents, aunts, uncles, cousins and lots of food. Later in life his visits were always an enjoyable time of catching up and reminiscing for mother and I.

Prayers for Darlene, Debbie and family.

Uncle Polly will be missed, but his memories will carry on.
