

Alyne C. Mittanck

September 3, 1914 - April 11, 2009

Alyne C. Mittanck, a lifelong resident of San Antonio, passed away in Austin on April 11, 2009 at the age of 94. She was born near Moulton, Texas to Mary and Louis Niebuhr and was married to Olen Frederick Mittanck, who passed away in 1959. Mrs. Mittanck was employed for many years at the Highland Park State Bank now Chase on San Antonio's Southside. She was a longtime active member of Aldersgate United Methodist Church, and a dedicated worker in the United Methodist Women of that congregation. In addition she was an accomplished seamstress, and loved to sew for the children in the family. She was always involved in the care and nurture of friends, family, and fellow church members.

Preceding her in death were her husband, Olen, sister, Mary Lou Neal, brother, A.F. Niebuhr, and son, Dr. Robert Mittanck. Survivors include son, Michael M. Mittanck, granddaughter Kristen Neel, great grandsons, Phillip Neel and Max Mittanck, and daughter-in-law Barbara Mittanck, all of Austin; grandsons, Michael Mittanck of Miami Beach, Florida, and Sgt. Robert Bryan Mittanck, serving in Afghanistan. For their kindness and care, the family thanks the staff at Parson's House, Retirement Nursing Center, St. David's Hospital Four West and Hospice Austin.

Tribute Wall

CH

“ We have lost another saint. Heaven will be a better place with Alyne there. ”

Charles & Gayle Heidel - April 16, 2009 at 12:00 AM