“ *Amada was a dear and precious friend to me for over 4 decades. We were roommates several times in those years. I have the good fortune to have had her friendship for those years. And so many fun and happy memories that we shared. She called me Tata and Girly, and I called her Chicky. We went every weekend to go dancing for a couple of years. She loved dancing and teasing me about not knowing how to dance. I will miss her tremendously!!
This is not goodbye because I know you are not gone. Just, I will see you later!! I love you Chicky!! 💖*
