

Amalia Garcia Craig

July 10, 1942 - May 11, 2026

Amalia Garcia Craig, 83, entered into eternal rest on Monday, May 11, 2026, surrounded by the love of her family.

Amalia was born in Coahuila, Mexico, to Valentin Garcia and Epifania Hernandez Rodriguez. She was a devoted mother of seven and a woman whose life reflected her deepest values: respect, education, hard-work, and unwavering faith in God. She instilled these principles in her children and extended them to everyone blessed to know her.

Throughout her life, Amalia served countless families in the community through her domestic work – relationships that grew into bonds of genuine care, trust, and mutual love. Her church, Southside Baptist, was her spiritual home. She was a faithful participant in church programs, including Vacation Bible School, and she cherished the fellowship she found there.

She was known as a “prayer warrior” and her go-to bible verse was John 3:16. One of her major joys was cooking for her family and her favorite color was white. She was also fond of yellow roses.
