

Amari "Kai Kai" Jobe

April 24, 2022 - July 11, 2024

Our precious and beloved Kai Kai was called to heaven too soon on July 11, 2024. Amari "Kai Kai" Jobe came into this world on April 24, 2022 with one mission, to ensure he left his mark. From the constant giggles, sense of adventure and absolute fearless approach to life, Kai was who we all wish we had the courage to be. Kai, you will forever be our sorrow and our joy. The happiness you radiated every day will live on through everyone who knew you. Know that, although we will always mourn you, there is love in every tear shed today and every day after. The world is a lot darker without you here sweet boy. We love you so much Kai and we know you're running freely with every ball you can get your hands on. We will never be the same without you. Amari Kai is lovingly remembered and survived by his parents Kaitlin and Darian Jobe, who cherished him dearly. He will forever be in the heart of his big sister, Aria Camille, who shared a special bond with him. Amari Kai's memory is also cherished by his grandparents, Celia Balderas, Cecilia and Marco Castelo, and Michael and Cathie Wilson, all who showered him with love and affection. He leaves behind aunts and uncles who adored him, including Jordan and Cody Grossman, Felix Ramirez, Jason and Marcya Jones, Lauren Castelo, Danielle Wilson and Darrell McCool. Amari Kai was loved by many others, and his memory will live on in their hearts forever.
