“ *I knew Amber in High School. She touched so many hearts in her short time on Earth. It breaks my heart to know she is no longer with us in person, but so happy to know she has spread her wings and flying with Harry now.
Prayers to her family and she will never be forgotten... her spirit lives on.*

She may be gone but NEVER FORGOTTEN! She impacted a lot of people's lives and still continues to. I love you amber our sweet angel 😇. RIP*

“ I've known Amber Peterson since we were young and dumb 20 year olds. We met while working at Grace Point Daycare. Of course being Amber she was the friendly one who introduced herself and we immediately became friends.

I have so many good funny memories together, like spare of the moment going to get our belly buttons pierced and Tragus pierced just because we felt like it. I remember a Christmas party one year we were supposed to bring a white elephant gift to and Amber and I thought it would be funny and appropriate to bring gag gifts from the adult megaplex (to a Church daycare party). We thought it was hilarious, everyone else, not so much. I even convinced her to go to Hardbodies male strip club (sorry moms) and we had a blast laughing at all the skits! She was always down to do whatever with my crazy ideas and we always had a blast together.

Amber was also someone I could confide in with my deepest darkest secrets and she the same in me and we never judged each other. We just understood. I'll never forget the summer from hell that Amber and I agreed to work the older kids daycare for kids who were out of school for the summer but not old enough to stay home alone. Those kids made our lives miserable but we made the best of it and just laughed and laughed.

When Amber and I began working at Marshall together we just picked up right where we had left off, although we had outgrown the piercings and Hardbodies and adult megaplex. But our friendship grew more genuine. Amber is someone in life you don't meet that often. She is the most caring, unselfish person ever. Even though she was the one fighting the biggest battle she would be there for you in a split second if you needed it. It didn't matter what she was going through.

I will forever treasure the last moments I got to spend with her this past Friday just talking and laughing like nothing was wrong. She still wanted to conquer the world. I love you Anderson Patrick

Peterson, William Peterson and David Peterson and I will always be here for you and always be there to help bc that's the type of person Amber would have been for me if the tables had been turned.

God doesn't give us many people like Amber on this earth so treasure them while you have them. I will love you always and miss you always! I know Harry welcomed you with open arms and you must have felt such peace being able to hold him again, you missed him so much. Now we have two guardian angels down here and I know you will be watching over us all like you did when you were here. David and the boys have the best 2 angels watching over them. You were the best friend and I love you always. I miss you so much but am so relieved that your suffering is gone. ❤️
