

Amelia Herrera

July 11, 1928 - November 26, 2024

Amelia is preceded by her father Francisco Mendez and her mother Reyes Rivera, her brothers and sisters Vicenta Garcia, Elvida Flores, Gilbert Mendez, Minnie Delgado, Francisco Mendez, Jr. and Alejandra Ortga. She is survived by Feliz Garcia, Angie Bowling, Mary Alice Garcia, Seferino Mendez (Frank), and Olivia Ramirez.

Amelia was born in Poteet, Texas on a ranch with her father. She and her siblings worked in the fields and helped with the harvest of many vegetables and fruits. She moved to San Antonio, Texas when she was 25 and worked in a men's clothing manufacturer and met her husband Jimmy Herrera. They married and had two daughters Sylvia Molinar and Deborah Lambert. Sylvia has a daughter Michelle Molinar and Deborah has a son Joseph Isaiah Lambert.

Amelia died at the age of 96, and she took many memories with her. Memories of her sisters and brothers that brought her a heart full of love and joy that filled her life up. Memories like leaving Gilbert and his wife Mary in Poteet at the old Amaya's Dance Hall before her parent's surprise 50th wedding anniversary. The shock of leaving her brother behind and the laughter that lingered afterward is what kept her warm inside for all her siblings. And the many times she shared her memories of her siblings with her daughters to give her daughters the sense of love she held for them. She never forgot them even with Alzheimer in her mind. She always asked for "The Girls or The Boys" and how she had to get home because they'd be there soon. Rest in peace Mama, you've earned it.
