

Amelia C. Sosa

November 22, 1934 - December 4, 2014

Amelia C. Sosa born on November 22, 1934, in Brownsville, TX to Serafin and Dolores Sosa began her new life on December 4, 2014 in San Antonio, TX at the age of 80.

Amelia was preceded in death by her parents, sisters Yolanda S. Vera and husband Maro, Elva S. Clark, brothers Serafin and Edmundo.

She is survived by her sister, Ana Maria Sosa, of San Antonio, TX, brother Alfredo Sosa and wife, Chelo of Brownsville, TX, many cousins, nieces, nephews, and numerous caring and supportive friends.

Amelia devoted 39 years to teaching, guiding and inspiring young minds. She spent the first 7 years in the Edgewood Independent School District and the last 32 years in the Northeast Independent School District, retiring in 1993 to take care of her mother who died at the age of 103 and 8 months.

Amelia's family is most grateful for the compassionate, gentle, care and support of Dr. Sharon Wilks, Dr. Farbod Malek, Nurse Shannon Haase, and VITAS Hospice staff.

Her family is most thankful for the caring, love and support of her numerous friends, especially Dora Alvarado, who through their prayers and strong faith journeyed with her as she bravely battled cancer for 3 arduous years.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests contributions be made to VITAS Hospice, The American Cancer Society, or to a charity of choice.

There will be no visitation or funeral services in San Antonio. Private family services will be held in Brownsville, Texas at a later date.
