

Amy Beth Barber

November 8, 1985 - January 23, 2020

Amy Beth Barber-

Just as a butterfly emerges from its cocoon; Amy has metamorphosed and ascended to immortality among the angels in heaven. Her beautiful, kind hearted soul was a vibrant force in every life that she touched.

Amy was born November 8, 1985 in San Antonio, Texas. She was a local graduate of Winston Churchill High School and a Baccalaureate of Texas A&M Kingsville. Amy lived her life with a burning love for her family, a great sense of humor and laughter, and determination to do it her way. She enjoyed days at the river, fishing at the beach, digging holes in the sand, country music (with an unwavering devotion to American Idol winner Kris Allen's music), and making family memories. Dr. Pepper and Bill Miller's #1 fan has relinquished her title.

Amy is survived by her father Clifton Barber; grandmother Gladys 'GG' Garrett; grandmother Dorothy Barber; sister and brother in law Afton and Carlos Ferrand; sister and brother in law Amber and Daniel Ferrand and her nephew Mark Ferrand- which Amy would want everyone to know she beat him in their last game of PS4 baseball The Show 2017! She also had loving support from numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends.
