AMY JANELLE ARTZ HOCH

Born to parents, Thomas Daniel and Renabeth Artz, Amy Janelle enter this world Tuesday, November 25, 1969 on a cold day in Dallas. She arrived home on Thanksgiving day. Amy lived in Dallas, Houston, Yantis, New Braunfels, San Marcos, Austin, and Wimberley before planting her roots just one block from her Nana's on Valleyfield in San Antonio. She had moved so many times – mostly under protest – she was determined her children would live in one home throughout their school years. She remained on Valleyfield until she passed from this life to the next January 12, 2016. Amy is survived by her husband, Lyndon B. Hoch, their sons, Zachary Daniel and Evan Allin Hoch, their daughter, Allison Louise Hoch, her mother, Renabeth Evans, father and step mother, Thom and Vivian Artz, brother and wife, Zane and Doris Artz, sister, Tamera Artz and nieces and nephews Nick and Hailey Cruz and Nevada and Zane Artz II. and her aunts and uncles Scott and Robin Evans, Patsy Hardin, Linda Kutel, Doug Trainer, Shirley and Don Ferguson, Teddy and Mary Lou Artz and great aunts and uncles Deanie and Charles Hartman and Charlene and Tope Tausch. There are too many cousins to mention! Amy was preceded in death by grandparents Theodore and Esther Artz, Herbert Evans, Marvin and Marie Evans Morgenroth, and Charles and Willie Riley, mother and father-in-law Frankie Marie and Allin M. Hoch. Visitation will be Friday, January 15 from 6:00 until 9:00 P.M. at Mission Park South. The service will be Saturday, January 16, 2016 at 3:00 P.M. at Mission Park South.

Interment will follow in Mission Burial Park South.
