

Ana Lidia Artavia

April 15, 1969 - October 22, 2024

Ana Lidia Artavia entered into eternal rest on October 22, 2024, at the age of 55. Born on April 15, 1969, she lived a life full of love, faith, and devotion to her family and God.

She is now resting in the arms of her Lord and Savior, reunited with her beloved mother, Flor Artavia; father, Rolendio Artavia; grandmother, Julieta Arguedas; and nephew, Ryen Artavia.

She had a fulfilling career, working as a caretaker, administrative clerk, and tax preparer at H&R Block. Beyond her professional achievements, Ana was happiest spending time with her family, sharing her love for cooking and shopping. Above all, her greatest joy came from attending church at Bethel Covenant Assembly of God serving in Children's Church and expressing her unwavering love for God.

Ana is survived by her younger brother, Ruben Artavia, and her older brother, Rolan Artavia. Though she never married or had children, Ana poured her love into her family and friends, leaving a lasting impact on all who knew her.

Ana will be deeply missed by those whose lives she touched, but her faith and kindness will live on in the hearts of her family and friends.

“Well done, good and faithful servant.” – Matthew 25:23
