

Ana Lydia Herrera

August 10, 2023

Our beloved mother, Ana Lydia Herrera, age 71, went to her heavenly home with our Lord on August 10, 2023. Ana was born in Nuevo Laredo, MX to Petra and Rodolfo Garcia. She was the youngest of her 5 siblings.

Ana was a dedicated and devoted mother to her sons: Hector Jr. and Mauricio. She, along with her beloved husband Hector Sr., raised their children in Laredo, TX and years later moved to San Antonio. She treasured her children and embraced every moment with them. She especially loved her role as Grandma and enjoyed every minute she spent with her grandchildren: Taylor, Elise, and Gavin.

She was known as a strong-willed and hardworking woman. Her indisputable work ethic, ambition, and drive to provide the most for her children, led her to persevere and successfully manage several businesses throughout her lifetime. One of her proudest moments was when she, along with her sons, were able to start and operate a successful family business.

To her family she was known as: Reina, mom, mama', nana, grandma, grama. She was the rock, pilar, foundation, and the glue of our family. She remains in our hearts and will forever be missed.
