

Ana Maria Lopez

April 17, 1922 - June 21, 2020

Ana Maria López, age 98, of Barranquitas, Puerto Rico, passed away on Sunday, June 21st.

Ana was blessed to have been a mother, grandmother and great grandmother. She dedicated her life to prayer and her Catholic faith. She was also very proud of her Puerto Rican heritage. We will miss hearing her stories of her life on the island.

She was born on April 17, 1922. She is preceded in death by her daughter, Diana Maria Colón, her parents, Jenaro Lopez and Luisa Vazquez, and her twelve siblings.

Ana is survived by her son, Ramon Colón. She is also survived by six grandchildren: Susan Amelia Melendez, Salvador Garcia, Diana Garcia Lenfestey and her spouse Kenny Lenfestey, Lewis Colón and his spouse Ginny Figlar Colón, Ricky Colón, and Steven Colón and his spouse Pauline Colón. Ana was also survived and blessed to have eight great-grandchildren: Justino Andres Melendez, Jordan Alexander-Melendez James, John Paul Melendez Obaya, Jake Ryan Garcia, Carina Emilene Cortner, Sophie Colón, Mathis Colón and Brittany Howell.

Abuela will always be remembered for her fierce independence, strength and devotion to her faith.

Embracing Anita for the good life she gave me and my family. Her love and care were worth to live with for many years. I treasure in my heart her sincere dedication as she took care of me since I was a baby and years later with my son, lovingly spoiling him and teaching me how to raise him the right way. My cooking gifts I owe it to her! See you in Heaven Anita!! xoxo

“ My other "mother", Anita. Been thinking of her for many years after we lost communication, not knowing that she passed away in 2020. We didn't have any ways to communicate with anyone in the family. So sorry in my heart. We have the hope that will see you in eternity as with all of our loved ones already with the Lord. My sincere condolences for the whole family.
