

Andres Perez Jr.

August 16, 1954 - January 3, 2026

Andres Perez Jr. 1954 – 2026

Andres Perez Jr., age 71, passed away in January 2026. Born on August 16, 1954, Andres lived a life rich in connection, laughter, and love, leaving behind a legacy felt deeply by all who had the privilege of knowing him.

Andres had a gift that few possess the ability to fill any room with warmth the moment he arrived. Whether with a stranger or a lifelong friend, he had a way with words and a warmth in his spirit that drew people to him naturally. He was the kind of man who could light up a conversation and leave everyone around him smiling.

In his retirement years, Andy cherished the simple pleasures of life and the company of those he loved most. He was a devoted husband and a proud father, and his family was the center of his world.

He is survived by his beloved wife and his two sons, who meant everything to him.

Andres Perez Jr. was loved by many, and that love does not end here. He will be remembered not just for what he said, but for how he made people feel.

"The best gift he ever gave was simply himself."

“ Mrs. Perez, Andy, and Joe, I'm so sorry for your loss. Mr. Perez was an amazing man and I'm so grateful that I knew him. Thank you Mrs. Perez for always welcoming us into your home for sleepovers and hangouts. You and Mr. Perez were so generous and I have so many great memories from time spent with you all. God bless you with his peace and comfort in this time. Javi Amaro

“ Andy was big man, Big in so many ways beyond his stature. His kindness was big. His interests were big. His humor was big. His friendship was big, reaching back all the way to 3200 McCullough. May his reward in heaven be big and his companionship with the other Yellowjackets he finds beside him in God's gaze be big too. His life, now eternal, is bigger than ever. May his family and friends be at peace, comforted by faith and the strength of one another. Fr Billy Morell, omi

I am very sorry to hear of Andy's passing. There are many of us, his classmates who enjoyed sharing Andy's life with him over the years. He was a great guy, with a tremendous & genuine laugh that was happy to share with the world around him. I remember him mainly from our days together at St. Anthony's. But I also remember some times fondly shared with him at his rent house early in the years after our days at St Anthony. His rent house located near downtown San Antonio on Quincy street, had a great front porch facing Quincy, I especially remember spending many hours in the warm summer nights on that front porch having good times and good conversation there, often with other St A's guys. George Lange often joined us in our camaraderie, not to mention a beer or two! Andy was a joy to be with and a very welcoming friend. Hope to join you again one day Andy on the great Front Porch in the sky! We will all miss you!

I have so many good thoughts of Andy that it is hard to figure out which ones to talk about.

Andy was a great friend to myself and to my brothers, which continued on well past our time spent at Saint Anthony's. While at Saint Anthony's, however he was quite a friend whether it be going downtown to the world hemisphere, playing football, throwing the discus, weightlifting, or whatever activity we had going. Andy always brought common sense to the situation where the Sullivan boys sometimes lacked it.

I remember visiting him on numerous vacations down to the valley where we had some great fun there also. After Saint Anthony's, my brother Bill, his son and one of my sons would routinely come down and visit Andy and go hunting for a boar. This is something that when I went down to the valley we would also do and again he would teach me the right way to use a rifle and use common sense while hunting, which was not second nature to me.

As much as I could not see Andy as frequent as I wanted to, it was always like we were never away from each other when we would get together for hunting or on occasion, he would come up to Chicago. I will miss Andy particularly knowing that his companionship is no longer available here on earth.

I have all the faith that someone who is as good as Andy will hopefully welcome me up to heaven when it is time for me to move on.

I miss you Andy
