

Andrew Michael Anastasio

October 23, 2000 - November 28, 2024

It is with deep sorrow that we announce the passing of Andrew Michael Anastasio, who left us far too soon on November 28, 2024, at the age of 24. Born on October 23, 2000, Andrew was adopted as a baby by Michael and Elaine Anastasio, who embraced him with open arms, love, and pride from the moment he entered their lives.

Andrew's passions were as unique and vibrant as his spirit. At the age of six, Andrew became a proud Tiger Cub, setting the foundation for his love of adventure, discovery, and helping others. His energy and enthusiasm kept his family on their toes, especially during his scouting years, which culminated in his achieving the rank of Eagle Scout.

As a child, Andrew's imagination was boundless. He could spend hours building intricate Lego creations, an activity that not only fueled his creativity, but also sparked his growing interest in technology. This curiosity led him to a lifelong passion for computers and eventually a career in the automotive industry, where he combined his problem-solving skills and his love of mechanics at the Lexus Dominion Dealership. Andrew's drive and dedication to his work were apparent to all who knew him, as he sought to learn, grow, and succeed in everything he did.

Though his time with us was brief, Andrew's legacy lives on in the memories of his quirky sense of humor, his boundless curiosity, and his unwavering love for the people in his life. He will be forever missed but never forgotten.

Andrew is survived by his parents, Michael and Elaine Anastasio; his sister, Andrea and her husband Darren; his sister Amy and her husband, Brandon; his nieces, Charlotte and Isla, and nephew, Lochlan; as well as his extended family and a wide circle of friends who loved him dearly.

On Wednesday, December 11, a Rosary will be said at 10:00, followed by a visitation at 10:30 at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Church, located at 8500 Cross Mountain Trail in San Antonio. Then at 11:00, a Mass will be held to honor his life, and a Celebration of Life reception in the church hall at noon.

Rest in peace, Andrew. Private Interment will be at a later date at the Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary Catholic Cemetery in Cestohowa, Texas.

You will always be loved, and your memory will forever live on in the hearts of those who knew you.

“ I cannot say I knew Andrew in a meaningful way, but I very much appreciated having known him in what way I did- a welcoming and friendly individual. He was an exceptional person with exceptional passion. He always made me feel welcomed in a crowd and his passing has been in my thoughts. My condolences to his family and friends. The world will be brighter for the time he was here, and heaven will be better place with him there.

“ I was just a online friend but we had a mutual ex together I met him shortly after my birthday he was an amazing person I could vent to and he'd always be there. The day he passed nobody initially told me till about 2 weeks after. I send my condolences to the family. His light will never fade in this dark World we live in. His spirit burned bright no matter what and now we have to bring the light he shared with the world to others. U will be missed Andrew. Best friend in life and still my best friend after death.

“ In the brief time I knew Andrew, I had the great honor of calling him one of my dearest friends. He was a remarkable young man who's kindness, compassion, and empathy for others was boundless. I feel that each day he was on this Earth was another day he strove to bring light to the lives of others. Many of his friends came together both in person and virtually in the days following his passing and shared in our own celebration of his life. In his honor we have pledged to carry him with us into the world through his memory and to strive to bring the same unyielding light into the world that he always strove to be. In his brief time with us, he has touched the lives of so many, and his presence shall be sorely missed. Rest well dear friend.

“ I remember meeting Andrew the first time. He was such a polite and friendly young man. Almost every time I took my car to the Lexus dealer, I would see him there and he always greeted me with a big smile, always so polite and friendly. He was such a nice young gentleman and will be surely missed, but never forgotten.
