“ *Dear Andrew,
I was just a stranger driving by at the time of the accident and I was deeply affected by the loss of such a sweet, young man. I just knew that someone had lost a son, brother, nephew, cousin, and friend. May you rest in peace while you are missed and remembered here on Earth.*

“ Sadly, I never had the pleasure of meeting or knowing Andrew. I think of him every time I leave my home and see where he passed away. Such beautiful flowers, balloons and candles. It's obvious that he was loved. My thoughts and prayers are with you in this difficult time.

“ We are going to miss our Uncle Drew. He was at our home at least ever other weekend he would pass out watching movies with my husband Bob and Our daughter Deva. I would come home from work, would see his boots by the door, then see Drew sleeping on the couch....so peaceful lol. He had is own pillow and blanket I would cover him with....we are going to miss that! He's the only person that would sleep over like he was our little brother! We will see you soon Uncle Drew!

“ One of the first times I hung out with Drew was with my boyfriend Dustin. We were walking over to Dustin's car and Drew stopped mid-step when he saw Dustin was going to his car door. He stared at him blankly, threw his hands up in the air, and said- it's alright! I'll get your lady's door for you! And rushed around to open my car door before I could grab the handle. I wasn't used to that, and laughed because I had just met Drew and he was immediately acting like such a gentleman. He always put a smile on my face and made sure I was taken care of. Love you Drew!
