

Andrew Lately

July 13, 1939 - April 6, 2026

Today we celebrate a Godly man. Andrew loved the Lord and he accepted the Lord at an early age when he followed his grandfather to every church service in Detroit. He loved to talk about Jesus to everyone.

He shared the word wherever he went and always prayed for someone in need. During his time in Detroit, he worked at the Chrysler Motor Plant on the assembly line until he retired in 1995. Andrew married and had three sons: Andrew, Jr., Joseph and DeWayne. Later he remarried and had another son, Andre'.

In 1991, Andrew moved to San Antonio where he met the love of his life, Marilyn, who he happily married in 1999. He joined Macedonia Baptist Church in 1991, where he later became a dedicated deacon. He also served as the church custodian until 2022 when his health began to decline. He loved reading his word. One of his favorite past times was helping his neighbors bring their cans from the curb to their yards. His dogs, Mixzel and Pippin, along with his bird Annie, kept him very busy. He loved his pets and enjoyed playing with them.

Andrew transitioned to glory on April 6, 2026, and is the last of his 12 siblings to be with the Lord. He is also preceded in death by his parents, Robert and Gladys Lately. He leaves behind to cherish his memory his loving wife, Marilyn, his great-great niece and nephew, Laylah and Za'Mari; four sons Andrew, Jr., Joseph, DeWayne (Sabrina) and Andre; six grandchildren, 11 great-grandchildren; and a host of church family and friends.
