“ As a Mexican immigrant teenager growing up on the west side of San Antonio, sports was a natural outlet. Lacking father figures meant looking to our coaches for direction in life. Coach Castaño was more than a coach to many of us. He thought us that even though life could be tough, we could be tougher. We're Wildcats and always will be. He encouraged and rewarded hard work in his own tough love way. Thanks for the lessons coach. May you rest in peace...and yes...I'll pick up the pace.

“ The last sibling, Angel our uncle..
You are now with your brothers and sisters and parents. Rest in peace now and know that GOD will forgive you of your sins..that you bestowed upon others ...since they have forgiven you...
