

Angel Louis Vasquez III

September 21, 1992 - June 23, 2017

"We are heartbroken, devastated, and can't imagine our future without our beloved son, brother, grandson, uncle, nephew and friend. We will never have the opportunity to see him married or with children. There are no more beautiful moments, no more laughs or cries together, but we look to you almighty God to get us through this difficult time. We have faith that you needed an Angel and that is exactly what you received; A beautiful person inside and out. A super smart, funny and loving soul with so much wisdom and wit. You always knew how to make us feel loved and protected. You will be missed and words can't express the pain and sorrow we feel right now. We are hoping to figure out how to navigate these waters without you physically here with us. We love you and you will be so missed 💞 May you Rest In Peace"

“ Angel was always a quiet person who pretty much kept to himself. Even as kids I remember Natalie Nunez and Tony Vasquez taking the spotlight (😊❤️) with their open and inviting personalities, while Angel mostly watched (or ignored us Lol). As he got older I began learning who and what he was about and I have to say I was always incredibly impressed with him and his potential. He was the kind of person who could make a statement with few words or just a look; his delivery, especially when speaking sarcasm, was impeccable! 😊 It is truly a shame his life ended so soon. 😞

About 7 years ago when he was 18, he and Tony lived with me while Nat and Angel relocated from Dallas to San Antonio and this is really the first time I had the opportunity to truly understand him and his loving, loyal heart. His sarcasm, humor, and intelligence was undeniable however meeting the real Angel, no walls just heart and truth, is what I am most thankful for!

If he is reading this, which I believe he will, I say THANK YOU FOR REACHING OUT TO ME (you know what I'm talking about). We had similar personalities, meaning neither really reached out to anyone even when in need, so I thank you and God for giving us that opportunity to talk alone and making a connection before it was too late. That day you gave me a hug and told me you considered me Family (like a Sister is what I think you said....Ok maybe it was Aunt Lol). You made me so happy because I always felt guilty about not pushing myself into your space but you saying that filled my heart with joy and comfort knowing i did right by you. Until we meet again, "Little Angel." I love you and see you when God permits. 😊❤️
