

Angela D. McGillivary

July 8, 1930 - May 5, 2012

Angela D. McGillivary

Angela "Angie" Dale McGillivary found peace in the arms of her Lord on May 5th, 2012. She was born on July 8, 1930 in Mount Vernon, Texas and grew up in Dallas, Texas. She dotted the country as a military wife, from Waco, Texas; to Anchorage, Alaska; Savannah, Georgia; Montgomery, Alabama; Corpus Christi, Texas and finally settled in San Antonio, Texas. She was a career civil servant from roles as diverse as secretary to helicopter repair and was a proud volunteer at the Warm Springs Hospital. Although her health did not permit her to visit her church recently, she was a steadfast member of the University Baptist Church and always enjoyed the enduring friendships and fellowship of "the ladies" at bible study.

Angela is preceded in death by her husband Joseph A. McGillivary Jr. She is survived by her three children, David Percival, Yvonne Neuenschwander, and Linda Lamberth, as well as her six grandchildren, Michael Hicks, Christopher and Aaron Neuenschwander, Angela "Angie" Barnett, Lisa and Sarah Percival, and her two great grandchildren Alex and Jeremy Neuenschwander. The family would like to extend its heartfelt thanks to the New Forest Assisted Living staff for their loving care and support for these last two years – we couldn't have done it without you.

In lieu of flowers, the family would suggest considering a donation to the Alzheimer's Association, at <http://www.alz.org/>.

Visitation will begin at 11:00 a.m. with a Chapel Service at Noon on Monday, May 14, 2012 at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North. Interment to follow at Fort Sam Houston National Cemetery
