

Angelina A. Molina

August 19, 1926 - June 22, 2017

Angelina Arriaga-Molina, age 90, went to be with the Lord on Thursday, June 22nd, 2017. Angie was born on August 19th, 1926 in Austin, Texas to Juanita and Gus Karambelas. She attended high school at Fox Tech and later pursued higher education at an accredited business school. She married Bernardo Arriaga on April 20th, 1947 in San Antonio, Texas and the two lived happily together until his passing on March 6th, 1978.

In her ninety years on this earth, Angie embodied a spirit of tenacity, from living through the Great Depression to earning a secretarial certificate to raising a beautiful family. Angie was continually dedicated to bettering herself and her community, as evidenced by her involvement with the Guadalupeana Society and Steven's Ministry. She was a woman of unshakable faith and never wavered in her dedication to her Lord and the Catholic Church.

Angie was a role model to her two daughters, Patricia Cisneros and Diane Webb, and a continual source of encouragement and inspiration for her seven grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. Angie's unconditional love and devotion will remain forever in the hearts of her family and the Catholic community she served.

Angelina is survived by her daughters Patricia Arriaga-Cisneros and Diane Webb. Grandchildren Robert John, Christopher, Anja, Robert Bernard, Richard Francis, Catalina and Toni and great-grandchildren Jeremy, Jacob, Joshua and Storm.
