

Angelina Castaño Tejada

February 25, 1934 - January 5, 2019

Beloved wife, mother, grandmother and sister Angelina Castaño Tejada joined the Lord on January 5, 2019, at the age of 84. She is preceded in death by her parents Jose Angel and Soledad Castaño, her sister Carolina Castaño, her brothers Alejandro and Valdemar Castaño and her son Victor Tejada.

Angelina is survived by her loving husband of 66 years, Jesus Ybarra Tejada, Jr., as well as her sons Constable Ruben C. Tejada, Edmond C. Tejada, Jesus C. Tejada and Michael C. Tejada, her brother Angel Castaño, her daughters in law Rebecca M. Tejada, Denise B. Tejada, Geovana Tejada, and Laura E. Tejada and granddaughter in law Clarissa E. Tejada.

“Grandma Angie” cared deeply for her grandchildren Ruben J. Tejada, Gabriel J. Tejada, Michael Tejada Jr., Victor E. Tejada, and Lauren E. Tejada.

A lifelong southsider, Angelina grew up attending Harlandale ISD schools. After more than a decade of working at Patio Foods and RJ Reynolds, she found her passion in helping her family and her community.

Angie also never failed to use her kitchen and skills to help those in need through plate sales. People came far and wide for her legendary potato salad. Through this delicious dish, she made fundraising efforts successful for politicians, churches, schools and sport teams alike.

Angelina loved the sports her family played. With her husband Jesus often the coach and sometimes the player, she cooked to feed baseball teams from Little League to Semi-Pro for more than 30 years. Grandma Angie was always there to watch the games and feed family and friends after.

Most of all, her children and grandchildren will always remember her and how her chorizito con huevo tacos made grandma's house feel like home. Her hospitality meant you couldn't leave grandma's unless you stayed to have her delicious cooking.

Angelina's legacy of hard work and love of family and community continues through all blessed to share in her life. We invite you to share in celebrating her life.
