“ I have many fond memories of Tia Angie. My favorite one was being introduced to the band, Queen. I remember her playing a record for Joseph and I. It was the song (Bicycle) . We used to play it over and over! Visiting her was cool, especially when she used to live in that dome shaped house. I also wished I could have visited her more over the years. I will always miss you Tia. Always. God Bless You.

Love you,
Robert Rodriguez

“ As the years went by I saw less and less of my aunt, I guess that's just the way life goes. But she was very prominent in my life during my younger years (teenager). Recently reminiscing with my mom about Angie, we were laughing.... Angie sewed some (many) shorts one Summer for me I was remembering how short they were (and thinking back they were very very short) and I worn them all! Then a short time later she was gluing tiny little pearl beads (hundreds) on my wedding dress (I was 16), I guess the shorts got some attention haha: I loved her then and I love her now and always
