

Angelo P. Di Pasquale

January 14, 1925 - February 7, 2010

Angelo P. Di Pasquale, 85, died at home on February 7, 2010. He was born January 14, 1925 in Oyster Bay, Long Island, New York. Angelo served in the U.S. Army from 1943-1946. He married Norma Friesenhahn on May 24, 1945 and settled in San Antonio. Angelo worked as a civil engineer at Kelly Air Force Base for 45 years. He was an avid New York Yankees fan and attended many World Series games. He enjoyed taking his grandchildren to baseball games and sharing his love of the game. He was past president of the Highland Southeast Optimist Club and headed up their Christmas tree sales and was involved in various club projects through the years. He was a long time member of the Christopher Columbus Italian Society. One of his last endeavors was to initiate and pursue recognition for S. Sgt. William Bordelon, a Medal of Honor recipient, from San Antonio. As a result of his efforts, signs recognizing S. Sgt. Bordelon have been erected on I.H.37. Angelo is survived by his wife of 65 years, Norma, son James Di Pasquale, daughters Phyllis Anderson, Barbara Chappell and husband Rick. He is also survived by his grandchildren Kirk Anderson, Christine Anderson Wilson and husband Brandon, Angela Chappell, Brian Chappell and a sister Frances Hauser of Bayville, New York. In lieu of flowers donations may be made to American Heart Association or a charity of your choice.
