

Anita Lee Stringfellow

April 1, 1928 - November 25, 2009

STRINGFELLOW

Anita Lee Stringfellow went to be with the Lord on November 25, 2009. She was born on April 1, 1928 to Ottosee and Beatrice Gartmann Lee in Bucatunna, Mississippi. She was a member of the Baptist Church. After completing school she moved to Mobile, Alabama where she started her family. She began her career at Brookley AFB in Mobile until transferring to Kelly AFB in San Antonio in 1966. Anita was a woman ahead of her time, working her way to rank GS 13 while raising 4 children. After 30 years of Civil Service she retired to enjoy family and hobbies. She started her own craft business in 1983 and enjoyed doing craft shows for many years. She loved gardening, bingo, watching football and cheering on her beloved Alabama Crimson Tide. She enjoyed attending as many of her grandchildren's events and functions as possible, she was proud of them all. She was blessed with a loving family and many lifelong friends and neighbors. Anita was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Melvin R. Stringfellow. She was also preceded in death by her parents and sisters, Delores Lee, Margaret Lee, Virginia Olsen and Scatter Sutton. She is survived by her children, Janet Jensen Jerry, J. R. Johnson, Pamela McKinney and Patrick Johnson Shari; grandchildren, Jaime Rowland Kevin, Jodi Seris Anthony, Casey McKinnney, Timothy Grogan Destiny, Jennifer Grogan, Amber Johnson and Alyssa Johnson; great-grandchildren, Landon and Jenna Rowland, and Emory Grogan; sister, Bert

Lee Gardner; and brother, Rudy Lee, both of Mississippi.
