January 18, 1924 - September 11, 2005

BARRY

Ann Elizabeth Barry, age 81, left this earth on September 11, 2005. At peace and surrounded by loved ones, she went to be with our Lord and her beloved husband, Joseph V. Barry, Sr. Ann was born in New York City to James and Rose Gouldie and raised in Jersey City. In 1949 she married the love of her life and moved to Texas. She was a member of the St. Lawrence Catholic Church Altar Society, VFW Post 4815 Ladies Auxiliary, Shoestring Club of New Jersey, parishioner of St. Benedict's Catholic Church, a member of her bunco club for over 40 years and a member of numerous bridge clubs throughout the years. Ann was co-owner of the Terrell Wells Community Center Grocery Store, General Manager of Railroad Salvage of San Antonio and longtime employee of Smith Chevrolet. She was a dedicated mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. She enjoyed being together with her family, especially at the beach house at Indianola, TX, and the warmth of her pet companions, Buffy and Friskee. She is preceded in death by her two brothers, David and George Gouldie. She is survived by eight children, Jo Ann and Mario Saenz, of Humble, TX, Thomas and Billie Barry, James and Debbie Barry, Joseph Barry Jr., Tim and Josie Barry, Regina and Dominic Palmer, Michael Barry and Debra Lopez, and Rita and John Leyva, all of San Antonio.
