

Ann Gray

March 17, 1938 - July 13, 2020

Mrs. Ann Gray, née Hitt was born March 17, 1938, to Arthur and Stella Hitt in Mayo, SC. She went home to be with the Lord on July 13, 2020. She was the last of 11 children. She lived in Kansas and Oklahoma before graduating from Longton High School in Longton, KS in 1955 and moving to San Antonio, TX to be near her sister, Grace. In 1967, she married Rev. C.T. Gray, and together they had one son, Marc. Ann was completely committed to Marc and Rev. Gray. She held many jobs in San Antonio over the years including at USAA, Main Bank and Trust, Red River Dave Real Estate, The Psychological Corporation, Arrow Upholstery and others. Ann acted as caregiver for Rev. Gray as his health declined. She would never leave him. She became a widow in 2012. Due to the tremendous stress, physical hardship and heartbreak of this period, Ann's health began to decline soon after. With Marc acting as her caregiver, she continued to live in San Antonio until her passing on due to Covid-19. Ann committed her life to Christ at a very early age and served him faithfully her whole life. Rev. Gray and Ann pastored Full Gospel Chapel in South San Antonio for decades. Ann was the pianist, organist, choir director and assisted and supported Rev. Gray in all aspects of the ministry. Ann was a wonderful wife and mother. She had a quick smile and loved to laugh. She was a naturally gifted musician and could play numerous instruments. She was strong with a kind heart. She loved children and little animals. She enjoyed puzzles of all kinds. She liked to travel. She was Marc and Rev Gray's greatest champion. She is survived by her son, Marc Gray of San Antonio, TX. and many nieces, nephews and cousins. She was preceded in death by her parents and husband, four brothers Leonard, Roy, Willie and Wilburn Hitt and four sisters Bessie Carney, Grace Reeves, Frances Faulkner and Violet Rourke.

Dear Marc,

Your mom was such an incredible person. I'm so glad I had a chance to know her. For almost five years, I visited her mostly every day to bring her, the holy communion and prayers. Every time she listened to my voice, she answered me with a sweet and tender smile, that was enough to say so many beautiful words and how peaceful she lived.

Although I never had the pleasure of introducing myself properly with you, I know that being Ann's son, you would have to be a wonderful person like her too.

I saw you many times in the nursing home visiting her. During her time here on earth, you were an excellent son. Be proud of it. She is happy, smiling from heaven, next to our Lord, knowing the excellent son that you were.

I know, no one can ever replace her, but be happy knowing that she was a special person who will be so sorely missed. Her soul always shone and always will.

My deepest condolences on the loss of your Mom.

“ Ann was such a lovely, classy woman. I have many fond memories of Christmas Eve at the Gray house. Ann always had a table full of candy; Arabian Nights and a Gumdrop Tree. As a small child, I remember thinking she was so fancy. And for Christmas she always gave me a stylish dress to wear to church. Ann was a beloved!

“ I have many memories of Christmas Eve with Ann. The house was decorated and there was plenty of food. I remember that Ann was a good cook. It was always a tradition that she opened her home to us so we could celebrate as a family.

“ I remember that Ann was always dressed up. It didn't matter what day of the week it was or if it was no occasion at all. Ann was always dressed fit for any occasion.

“ Ann & Myrtle Mills gave me my baby shower. I wanted to have a girl so badly. Back then they only did sonograms if you were having some kind of distress. Everyone told me I was having a boy claiming to know by the way I was carrying the baby. At the shower, Ann's gift to me was a lovely pink baby dress. She wrote a sweet note that said, I really hope you get your girl. But if not, you will find that little boys are really sweet too. I had my girl & she wore that pink dress for her first day in church. It will always be a touching memory for me. God's speed, Ann.

“ I send my love to you, Cousin. I know you're hurting, and wish I could take that away for you.

Aunt Annie, I love you way more than you knew, I'm sure. You will be missed, but never forgotten. Please, find my loved ones there, if you can, and hug them all tightly for me. 💜💍✝️
