You are missed more than ever, Seems so strange to sit in your house or look out the window and not see you on your porch 💔. But I feel your presence around us everyday, keep watching over us 💕💕

“ Ann... with special memories of our loving sister, sister-in-law, aunty and great-aunt. We were so glad Ann had time to visit us in the UK in July 2019 and we were able to catch up with her once again. So much has happened since then and for the past few months Ann was so brave battling on with all that had happened to her. It was such a great shame she was unable to spend more time in the new bungalow, but we know how much she enjoyed the short time spent there.

Sent with love from Jean, Sylvia, Keith, David, James, Angi, Cécile. Ben, Joe, Eva, Alice and Léo

Please accept my sincere condolences over the passing of your mother, grandmother and beloved family matriarch, Sis Howard. I knew her as a Wednesday night Bible study partner at True Vine Baptist Church where we worshiped. I will forever remember her joyous spirit. In addition to studying, she shared episodes of her family and the deep love she has for her daughters and grandson. I recall her enthusiasm at her trip home the summer before this pandemic. We laughed at her stories of how her daughters protected her in some many ways and the joy of her grandson. Truly she loved God and all her family. May our Lord God bless and comfort you during this time. " Earth has no sorrow that Heaven cannot heal." Much love to you, family...

“ I will always remember that evil little grin she would give. She was the sweetest lady I've ever known and it was an absolute pleasure knowing her. I'm heartbroken that she is no longer with us physically but will always be here spiritually. She is up in heaven with my parents looking down on us. She will forever be in my heart. Rest easy Mrs. Marie ❤️

“ Words cannot express my sadness. May the comfort of God help her family through this difficult time.

Words seem inadequate to express the sorrow felt by the loss of my friend Marie Howard. My heart is with you. My sweet angel Marie will be greatly missed but her warmth, kindness, and gentle spirit will be remembered forever. I remember her always making the best banana nut bread. Marie you will always share a special place in my heart. RPIH
