“ Our Aunt Ann would love to make us laugh! She was such a jokester during Halloween time, she loved to take out her front teeth, spoke with a Boris Carlof voice and pretend to be a vampire who had come to suck our blood! (I think that's the actor's name?) Any way, all hell would break loose when she would grab us from behind and tried to bite our neck!!! LOL! We love our Aunt Ann and we will miss you and all your Halloween pranks!

Aunt Ann was great with kids, patient and loving, with a great sense of humor. When I was growing up she'd make my birthday cake every year. She'd always ask what flavor I wanted and decorate it to the hilt. She made me feel special, like a little princess. She was just as generous with my children. We love her so much, she's truly missed.
