

Ann Beissner Smith

January 7, 1943 - November 22, 2021

On Monday, November 22, 2021, Ann Beissner Smith, loving mother of two children and grandmother of four grandchildren, passed away at the age of 78. Ann was born in San Antonio in 1943 to Emmet Beissner and Agnes (Lamm) Beissner. Growing up in San Antonio she graduated from Providence High School in 1961 and loved books from Isaac Asimov, dance, and music. Her spontaneous bursts of showtunes or demonstrating her residual skill as an experienced ballet dancer at family gatherings will be greatly missed. She worked as a government secretary before retiring and gave birth to two boys, Anthony and Matthew Smith. She spent her retirement selflessly helping raise two of her grandchildren for whom she shared her passions and inspired to become an Air Force pilot and Registered Nurse. She will always be remembered for her humor, perseverance in tough situations, and indomitable spirit.

In addition to her two sons, she is survived by her sister Irene, four grandchildren, Matthew, Kathryn, Giovanna, and Ian, and several nephews and nieces. She will be buried at Mission Park North Cemetery next to her late husband James Monk on December 6th with service at 10 am and burial to follow.
