

Ann G. Yerrington

December 3, 1924 - January 2, 2014

Yerrington

On January 2, 2014, Ann Guyton Yerrington went on to God at peace and with total dignity. Ann lived her life from December 3, 1924 to January 2, 2014 as a devoted daughter to two great parents, Allen Kenneth and Pauline Parker Ragsdale, adoring sister to Mary Martha Gilbert and Frances Jackson Kerber, doting wife to Foster Charles Yerrington, and as a loving, kind, and tender hearted mother to Robert Foster Yerrington, Elizabeth Ann Treuter, Mary Frances Force, and Kenneth Edward Yerrington. She was also a loving aunt, grandmother, and great grandmother. Ann spent her adult years serving the community and persons with special needs as an Occupational Therapist. She gave of herself for over 50 years of active service as an O.T. Ann was active with the Community of Christ Church and throughout her service she received numerous accolades for her commitment to service to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Ann celebrated life with her constant vigilance towards duty for family, her loving and open nature, and her beautiful sense of humor.
