

Anna Bryan

June 29, 1948 - October 4, 2020

Anna Bryan was born on June 29, 1948 at Valley Baptist Hospital in Harlingen, Texas at 8:30 am on a Tuesday. From the moment she came into this world, she was a light among lights, a gem among gems, and a friend among friends. After graduating from Harlingen High, she studied teaching at various colleges to become what she had always dreamed of being: A mother. She was a mother to her students, peers, friends, and family. The list of the lives that she impacted with a generous spirit of grace, warmth, and compassion reaches to the heavens: Which is where she came from and now rejoices.

“ Mrs. Bryan was my child guidance teacher. Ever since I was a child, I wanted to be a teacher. After being in her class, she showed me that teaching really is what I wanted to do. Mrs. Bryan got me my first job in a daycare, and supported throughout college. I am now a kinder teacher and it's all thanks to Mrs. Bryan. She taught me how to see the good in every child. How to love unconditionally, and how to find a way to connect with people. She had the biggest smile and the best hugs. I will miss you so much. Thank you for everything you have taught me!

“ I had the opportunity to work with Anna at Hobby Middle School and the Ready-Set-Teach program. She was a wonderful mentor to so many children and I admired her ability to work with them. She was a special educator and always met everyone with a smile and encouraging words.

“ Sweet Anna - how I miss you! Words can't describe my loss. I love you but know we will be together again in Gods kingdom. A greater sister no one could have had - my memories are so real I can almost feel the breeze on our faces at SPI during our Sister's Weekends! What wonderful times we had and such treasured memories for me. Yes, we will be together again but until then I hold you in a special place in my heart.

“ Oh my heart. Anna, my friend and co-worker. You will be so missed but I know you are in the loving arms of our father and creator. You were the one who I could always count on to flash that beautiful smile and give heartfelt words of encouragement! Your laughter could light up the room and your joy was ever present. You have a treasured place in my heart and memory. ❤️ Love and condolences to Charles and sons and extended family from Bob & Ann O’Campo

“ Mrs. Bryan was such a beautiful and gracious lady. She always had a smile on her face. I loved the way Charles and Anna would look at each when they thought no one was looking. May she rest in peace and the Internal light shine upon on her.

“ Anna was always the beautiful and poised older sister when I was growing up with her and Mardee. We had so much playing with our Barbie dolls, drinking RC Cola, having Sunday lunch with Uncle Martin's wonderful grilled hamburgers, just good old-fashioned fun. Anna will be remembered by me as a person of strong faith and perseverance. Sending my love to the family.
