

Anna Marie Juern

December 13, 1927 - December 2, 2025

Anna Marie Juern, Nickname Miss Ann, age 97 of San Antonio Texas passed away on December 2nd, 2025, in her sleep at her home where she resided with her daughter Liz De La Rosa and her son-in-law Rick De La Rosa.

Ann was born in Chicago to Carl W. Juern, Father and Anna E Born, Mother on December 13th, 1927. Ann Left Chicago and came to San Antonio, Texas in 1948. She was introduced to Frank Coleman by a mutual friend, and they immediately hit it off. They were married on October 13, 1949. They lived and started their lives together in Harlandale, on the south side of San Antonio.

Ann had a music degree and started giving children's piano lessons in her home in Harlandale and played various church services, weddings and funerals. Her love of music was immense. She started a church chime choir, a country band and for a time sang in the choir at Harlandale Methodist Church. Ann played church services for various churches and in her later years was a member of St. Andrews Lutheran Church as well as the Church of the Resurrection on Grissom Road.

Ann was involved in sewing projects for several charities; she was a member of the Daughters of the Nile and involved in raising money to support the Shrine Children's hospitals in Texas. She made hundreds of shopping bags for CAM with donated fabrics that were brought to her to sew. Her whole life was one of compassion and service to others.

Ann is survived by her daughter Liz De La Rosa. Ann is preceded in death by her husband Frank Coleman and her son Lee Coleman.

Ann's Memorial Service will be held at Dellcrest Funeral Home located at 2023 South WW White Rd. S.A. Texas 78222 (210) 337-4082 on Saturday, December 13, 2025 at 11:00 AM.

“ Ann was a wonderful seamstress. She was a member of our Hilltop Squares square dance group. She made my lovely outfit for a square dance convention we had here in San Antonio many years ago. I purchased the pattern & material and Ann made it for me at no charge. She wouldn't take anything for making it. She was our organist at St. Andrew's Lutheran Church for many years. She will be missed.
