

Anna Maria S. Coy

October 19, 1934 - January 12, 2011

COY

Anna Maria S. Coy, age 76, died peacefully on January 12, 2011 at Newforest Assisted Living surrounded by her brother, hospice nurse, and minister after a long battle with cardiac and kidney disease. Anna Maria worked for the former Clegg Company for over 20 years in the book binding dept. and later at the Paul Anderson Co.. After several years of art lessons under the supportive guidance of former artist, Warren Hunter, Anna became quite adept at painting. She also enjoyed creating colorful ceramics and had a strong love for good music, dancing, and the many pets she owned throughout her life. Anna was preceded in death by her loving parents, Ramon and Ignacia V. Coy; nephew, Michael R. Coy. She is survived by her brother, Henry and wife, Marlene; niece, Michelle A. King and husband, Jim; grandnieces, Olivia and Emily; grandnephew, Christopher. The family extends thanks and much appreciation to the following people who helped in their loving care and support of Anna Maria; Dr. Denise Hart and her staff, Dr. John Seidenfeld, Dr. Harrison Bowes, and the entire staff of Newforest Assisted Living and Hospice Inspiris nurse, Elizabeth Martinez.
