

Anna Marie Kennedy

January 5, 1932 - October 12, 2019

Anna Marie Kennedy age 87 of San Antonio was called to Heaven on Saturday, October 12, 2019. She was born in San Antonio to Joseph and Angelina (Arredondo) Stafford and grew up in Mexico City, Mexico.

Upon graduation from high school in Mexico City, she returned to San Antonio where she met and married George E. Kennedy in 1957. She worked as a Legal Secretary for several attorneys before beginning employment with the Bexar County District Attorney's office for 25 years until retirement. Because she was bilingual, she was often asked to translate cases to Spanish for the Spanish speaking television media. Mrs. Kennedy was a member of the Los Angeles Heights Presbyterian Church and had been an active member of the Pilot International Service Organization.

She was preceded in death by her parents. She is survived by her children, James V. Kennedy and Yvonne K. Corson and her husband, Kevan; her grandchildren, Melina Denend, Nicole Kennedy, Jamie Haller, Lauren Corson, and Kelly Wallace; her great grandchildren, Katelyn and Zakk Frankovich, Kloey and Brock Strande, Bryson, Addison, and Carson Haller, and Hunter Eckert; her brother, Robert Jesus Stafford and his wife, Leslie.

Anna Marie loved animals, not only because they are cute, but because they are God's creatures. It is for this reason, her family would like to have donations made to the Humane Society of San Antonio in lieu of flowers.

“ Anna was a dear faithful long time friend of me and my family, particularly my Aunt, Katherine Bichsel. She was a lovely accomplished interesting woman. We miss her at Los Angeles Heights Presbyterian Church. She’s now resting eternally with God.
