“ My Dearest friend Anna,

I was with you through some of your most difficult times in your life. I am so sorry that I was not with you in your last days of your illness. We have been good friends for so many years and I now know why you had been strongly on my mind recently, it was your way of saying goodbye. Goodbye my friend, rest in peace.

Condolences to the family.

*Your friend always,
Diana Cruz*

“ Mom I will never forget the good moments we had with you. Through tears and joy we all are blessed to have had you in our lives. With every bit of sadness in me I will be strong for you I love you so much. Thank you for not only giving me and the girls a home, with so many chances and your love and care but giving us a MOM when we needed one most of all. You are a extremely strong women who is now in a better safe place. I may not except the fact you are gone yet and sometimes I forget you are): but I promise to always have you in my heart and never EVER forget you. I will see you soon, please look after all of us and know I love you.

“ Mom, I'll always remember you as someone who was energetic and carefree and being the beautiful mama that I know. I'll never forget waking up on a Sunday morning, hearing your Tejano music and waking up to seeing you dancing. That's the mama I know and will always remember. I love you, mama. Make all the angels dance with you <3
