

Annie Ruth Mayer

August 13, 1919 - April 7, 2009

MAYER

Annie Ruth Oakley Brantley Mayer, born August 13, 1919, to James Casse Oakley and Margaret Jane Lowrance, went to be with the Lord on April 16, 2009. Ruth was a graduate of Brackenridge High School. She worked as a school secretary, assisted at her late husband, Ed Mayer's, Texaco Station, and was a clerk at Highland Hills Pharmacy. She was a life-long Presbyterian and sang in the choir for many years. Many loved ones preceded her in death. She is survived by four children: Rev. Mary Beth Stoner and partner, Arlene Glidden, Gene Paul Brantley and wife Frances, Wayne Clinton Mayer and wife Sylvia, Douglas William Mayer and wife Barbara; three step-children: Jim Mayer and wife Dette, John Mayer, Jo Belle Orvis; eight grandchildren and numerous great-grandchildren. She was in the care of Odyssey Healthcare at Stone Oaks Care Center at her death.

SERVICES

A visitation will be held from 10:30 – 11:30 AM on Monday, April 13, 2009 at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North. A service celebrating Ruth's life will be held at Mission Park Funeral Chapels North on Monday, April 13, 2009 at 11:30 AM with interment to follow at Ft. Sam Houston National Cemetery. Per Ruth's request in lieu of flowers give to a church or charity in her memory.

Tribute Wall

LB

“ I am thinking of you and your family Paul and Frances. While I never knew your mother, if she was half as nice, caring and sensitive and half as much fun as her son I sure did wish I did have the honor of meeting her.

May your fond memories of Mom hel lois branco - April 12, 2009 at 12:00 AM

KB

“ Paul I am so sorry to hear about the death of your Mother. She will be sadly missed. I remember the fun we had with her when we would all get together. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

Love, Barbara and Kermit

Kermit & Barbara - April 12, 2009 at 12:00 AM