

Annie Mae Stewart

December 18, 1929 - March 6, 2023

Annie Mae Skipper Stewart was born in Andalusia, Alabama on December 18, 1929 to parents, Charles Bennett Skipper and Willie Mae Walls Skipper. She was the oldest of six children and is survived by her three sisters, Sara N. Williams, Fay Skipper, Margie R. Skipper and her two brothers, Willie H. Skipper and Robert D. Skipper.

Annie Mae (Ann to her friends and family) married the love of her life, Aubrey Jackson Stewart, on December 25, 1951. They were married for 48 years. Aubrey and Ann moved to San Antonio, TX. from Bay Minette, AL. in the summer of 1969. For the next 16 years, they resided and raised their family at 6123 Rain Cloud (Thunderbird Hills). In 1985, after retirement, they relocated to Bulverde where Annie lived happily for 34 years.

Annie was employed by San Antonio's Rhodes Department Store for many years and after retirement, she and Aubrey enjoyed many trips to Las Vegas and other locations. Traveling, playing Bingo, and finding hidden treasures at garage sales (to later sell at her own garage sale) were some of her favorite things to do.

Annie Mae was Mom to her five children, Charles S. Stewart, Wayne J. Stewart, Cynthia A. Turner, Darryl W. Stewart and Bruce H. Stewart. She was Granny or Grandma to her twelve grandchildren, sixteen great-grandchildren, and one great-great grandchild.

Her family will miss her opinions, her perspective, her unique Christmas gifts and HER.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to The Cancer Society, Alzheimer's Association, Wounded Warriors, Tunnel to Towers or any Children's Hospital.

“ I can remember living in San Antonio and the trips Aunt Ann and Uncle Aubrey would take us on such as Brownsville and Corpus Christi. Some of my best memories were those fishing trips. I also remember Aunt Ann coming for Mardi Gras and having such a good time. We all enjoyed her laughter and words that helped us to grow. I'll miss her very much.

What an amazing woman I also have wonderful memories of her, but her laugh and her smile that could light u a room, and she love Mardi Gras I so remember her just jumping around when a float would come bye and she would be so excited when she was catching beads and anything else they threw wonderful memories that I would never forget. And also when we took trips to San Antonio and did sightseeing and just having a wonderful time. She will have a special place in my heart

My favorite memory is Aunt Butch having her soaps on in the afternoon, and I'd come over and we would watch them together. She loved her soaps. I'm going to miss her laugh as well, she had a way of lighting up a room when she entered it. RIP Aunt Butch, gone but never forgotten. I know you and Uncle Aubrey are so happy to be together again.

I remember the. Saturday shopping trips to downtown Mobile at WoolsWorth Department Store across from the City's Park. I'm between 12 and 14 years of age during this time. What a treat. I never returned home with out a small token of Ann's appreciation. Once it was Mexican Jumping Beans. Love those adventures.
