

Anthony P. Arreaga

September 6, 1920 - August 18, 2006

Anthony P. "Tony" Arreaga, is now at peace having gone home on August 18, 2006. He was born on September 6, 1920, and is survived by his bride of 66 years, Aida Ramos Arreaga, his children - Annie Arreaga, Anthony L. Arreaga and Arlene Arreaga, grandchildren - Vickie Lynn Miller, Danielle Adams, Michael Arreaga and Aundrea Flynn and by his great grandchildren - Jason Anthony Miller, Cristine Nicole Miller, Ryan Adams, Victoria Adams, Matthew Flynn, Charles Flynn, David Bell and his brother, Roy Arreaga, as well as many loving family members and friends. Tony was preceded in death by his parents, Antonio Arreaga and Rafaela Perez Arreaga; and 9 brothers and sisters.

Tony served his country in the Navy during World War II. He was a master carpenter, sharing his trade by teaching the Apprentice Program for the Carpenter's Local Union #14 in San Antonio, Texas. He served as Secretary and President of the Carpenter's Local. He was a member of the Knights of Columbus at St. Gerard's Church. His whole life was devoted to providing for his family, not only materially, but emotionally and spiritually.

“ Popo,

It has been a few years and we still miss you but the Lord has sent Granny to be with you. Momo and I have both agreed you've had plenty of time to build her a cabana. Have fun!
