

Anthony James Rodriguez

April 6, 1965 - September 6, 2020

Anthony James Rodriguez, age 55, passed away on September 6, 2020 at CHRISTUS Santa Rosa Hospital in New Braunfels, Texas. He was born April 6, 1965 to Olga Salinas and Jimmy Rodriguez in Lockhart, Texas. He is survived by wife Melinda Stone Rodriguez along with his two daughters and their spouses, Brittany Rodriguez-Davila (husband Gabriel Davila), Tiffany Rodriguez Montgomery (husband Joshua Montgomery), his parents John and Olga Singleterry, Jimmy Rodriguez, brothers Troy Singleterry (wife Therese), Kevin Rodriguez (wife Nicole), and Jimmy Rodriguez Jr. (wife Jennifer), and sister Marie Rodriguez. He was also blessed with a grandson, Jackson Tex Montgomery.

Anthony was a loving husband, amazing dad, wonderful son, proud Papi, great brother, faithful co-worker and caring friend to many. But above all what we admired most is that he was a mighty man of God and held such a passion for living to serve others. He was most recently a member and active volunteer at Grace Avenue Church. Anthony also invested time in the community through service projects with USAA.

He met the love of his life Melinda in San Antonio in 1987. It was love at first sight as they quickly married on April 23, 1988. They quickly expanded their family by welcoming daughter Tiffany in February 1990 and daughter Brittany in November 1994. Anthony and Melinda would call San Antonio home during their 32 year relationship. Anthony loved showering Melinda with gifts like Jewelry, being the chef of the home, bringing home flowers and taking care of the garden.

Anthony worked for USAA for 20 years. Starting his banking career at Frost Bank as a wire transfer employee he rose up to being a Assistant Vice President. In 2000 Anthony moved on from Frost Bank to USAA starting as a New Account manager before rapidly moving on to become a Financial Operations Manager, Treasury Operations Analyst, Senior Treasury Operations Analyst and Development Product Owner Senior. Anthony's illustrious career left a lasting impact on his coworkers.

His greatest pride and joy were his two daughters Tiffany and Brittany. Spending all the time he could with them attending all their orchestra concerts, taking them on vacation (while playing "girls just wanna have fun" of course) and encouraging them to finish their college educations. Anthony's love for his daughters extended to his sons-in-love Joshua and Gabriel who he accepted into the family like his own sons.

"Papi," as we called Anthony, was the best grandfather. His time with Jackson was always precious. Building blocks and watching Disney movies were always top priority when Anthony's "Cinnamon Monkey" was around. Anyone who knew Anthony would recall him proudly boasting about Jackson being his "miracle grandson."

Anthony will be missed deeply by his family, brothers and sisters in Christ, friends and coworkers. He was the cornerstone of his family, a pillar of the community and a man of unshakable faith. Anthony fought the good fight, finished the race and kept the faith.

“ I'm Flori Aliaga. I had worked with several managers at USAA for 19 years, each manager have different ways of managing their team, some are good and some are complicated and disorganized but Anthony was remarkable. Anthony has an excellent attitude, smart, kind, helpful, approachable, fair, hardworking and always willing to help and encourages his staffs as the best service provider to our members. I remember, despite of his busy work schedules, every Xmas, he managed to wrap an individual gifts for all his staff. He treat his staffs like his own family, he listens and give us positive advice. There were days when our team was having tough times to finish the task before the end of the day, Anthony will get his hands on and help us process and finished the tasks. He's one of the few managers that knows how to do all the tasks for the team from top to bottom, unbelievable, most managers just know how manage a team but doesn't know how to process the task themselves. Anthony is very proud of his wife and his 2 daughters, he always brag to our team his 2 daughters are both smart and beautiful. Too sad, we lost Anthony, a great and smart man, he will always be remembered. Our deepest condolence and sympathy to Melinda and family, May God will guide you and comfort you in this time of sorrow. 🙏

“ I first met Anthony when we worked at Frost Bank and he was just engaged to Melinda . Little did I know he would be my boss at Frost and USAA he was a great friend and he was a great boss, he was compassionate and I told him I was raised in Lockhart as well so to me he was like a little brother because we had same last name Rodriguez before I married and so he was kind and considerate and very happy with his family. For Melinda and all his family my condolences and prayers may God be with you. Your friend always Angie Robledo
