

Anthony Daniel Valdez

October 16, 2000 - October 24, 2023

Anthony Daniel Valdez, age 23, loving son, grandson, brother, nephew and uncle, entered into rest on October 24, 2023, in Little Rock, Arkansas. He was born on October 16, 2000, in San Antonio, Texas. He is survived by his father, Daniel A. Valdez and stepmother, Chunlan Shen, mother, Beatrice M. Valdez and stepfather Carlos Talamantes, his sisters, Vanessa and Valerie Valdez, his brother, Daniel A. Valdez, Jr., and his wife Katrina N. Valdez. He is also survived by his nephews and nieces, Isabella and Valentino Trevino, Jesish, Lilliana, Jardani, Ari, Daniella Valdez, Aunt Jennifer Mendoza, Uncles Gilbert Valdez, Roland and Roy Carranza. He is preceded in death by grandparents, Manuel Valdez, Lillie H. Valdez, and Josie C. Estrada.

Anthony had a love for the road as a big rig driver and a trainer with Western Express, Inc. He loved to teach others and had discovered his love for traveling and exploring life and what life had to offer. This venture also helped fund his love as an entrepreneur and his love for creating an App for an online business he was about to launch along with other future goals. He also attended online college courses related to Cyber Security. During his short downtime between truckloads when he was able to make it back home on specific weekends, Anthony was cherished and loved by all his family including his best of friends Angel, Christian, and Oscar. Anthony will be missed deeply and will always live in our hearts.

“ Qué joven tan apuesto y alto resultó ser Anthony. Tuve el placer de hablar con él unas semanas antes de este trágico accidente. ¡Le encantaba su trabajo y estaba orgulloso de ser camionero! Dios tomó un ángel. Descansa en paz Anthony .
