“ My Condolences to the Campa family it was a pleasure meeting and knowing your mom and father . They were both genuine people. Mr. Campa knew my father and were friends growing up and when they were in the National Guard and my mother knew your mother from Washington Irving middle school. My mother and your mother were friends although my mother died when I was five years old September 23, 1971. My mother stood in your mother's Quince I still have that pic. My father and your father were able to see each other one last time before my father passed away in 2001. They attended my fathers birthday party and that's when I met them. They were wonderful people and I will never forget your mother when she played the piano at one of her parties. I am sorry, for your loss and was not able to come around due to some of my health issues although I always will carry her in my heart she always talked to me about my mother . Antonia, now that you are in Gods Kingdom give my mom a huge hug and kiss for me and thank you for being a great friend and Mr. Campa tell my father how much I miss him . I will always carry you both in my heart and may God bless your family.

I just want to give my condolences to the Campa family. She was a very pretty previous aunt to me. I saw her there many times being there for support and kind. I will always remember her elegance and gracefulness. Thanks to God for our memories and for the hope of seeing our loved ones again. I pray for each of you to be comforted and strengthen during this time. Hugs and kisses to you all.

“ My Mom enjoyed life to its fullest even after her stroke in 2009. It was her love and service to her family that gave Mom the strength to continue to serve the needs of her children beyond her limitations resulting from the stroke. She continued to be a loving and devoted wife to her “Honey” Chickie constantly making sure he was taken care of. Moms love flowed like a water fall ever beautiful and constant. As each new great grandchild was born and placed on her lap she would light up with joy, pride and love. Mom was always giving blessings to all who came to see her. Mom lived her life filled with love of family, music and sweet words of kindness for all. God gave her friends that lasted a lifetime and memories that she truly treasured. She had the gift for making all who knew her feel special and beautiful. In her life she lived her heaven here on earth and we were all the better for it. God gave us an Angel in the form of our mother Antonia “Tonie” Campa and for that we are truly blessed.

Love your son,

Philip
