Antonia was an amazing fun mother, sister, grandma, aunt and now angel. She filled us with great memories and saying goodbye could never be harder. She was full of life up until her last breath. She filled the room with laughter even while in the hospital. Listening to the twist will be dull and boring without her.

“ Where to begin this journey without you. I feel empty inside. I miss your jokes your voice, your smell. I walked by Macy’s fragrance just to smell you. Our family gatherings will never be as much fun as with you in it. I know you want us to move on and be happy but to learn to live without you seems impossible at this moment. I promise to watch over Jr and Grace. I will spoil your grandkids for you and I am sure Andi will keep us entertained until we meet again. Please give God, grandma, dad and Rogelio a kiss for me. I will love you and miss for the rest of my life and I look forward to see you in heaven my sweet guardian angel. You’re my perfect Angel! You’re daughter Antonia

“ Mom, I miss you so much! My life will never be the same without you here. You were always there for me for anything and everything. I'm going to miss us going to all our road trips going to meet up with Noonie. All the crazy things you got us into. I am so lucky and blessed to have you as my mommy. I couldn't have asked for a better mother and best friend. The hardest thing I have ever done was hold your hand while you took your last breathe, I know you are now in heaven with grandma and that brings contentment to my heart. I know now what you meant all those times you told me how much you missed grandma and nothing was ever the same for you anymore. I love you so much and I will never ever forget you my beautiful angel. Love Chela
