“ Antonio was our next door neighbor and we couldn't ask for a better neighbor. He was so sweet and kind to my family. Even when my father would come to visit, they would be outside chatting forever sharing stories. Anytime he would see my husband working outside he would stop to lend a helping hand. Every time I was outside he would always wave at me. Every Christmas he would drop off some tamales his wife made. He will be missed. May he rest in peace. To the Galindo family if you need anything, we are just next door, don't hesitate to reach out if you need anything. Our deepest condolences to the family during this difficult time.
