

Antonio V. Garcia

June 13, 1922 - July 18, 2009

A Loving husband for 68 years.

A proud and beloved father of two daughters he deeply loved.

Youngest of nine siblings of

Maria Villareal Garcia

and

Vicente Garcia

He grew up on a farm with his family.

Later married Amanda Linares.

He served in the Army during World War II in Europe.

Tony received numerous medals and awards.

He became a hair stylist and Beauty Salon Entrepreneur in San Antonio and Pleasanton, Texas-

At retirement, he returned to farming and raising animals in Poteet, Texas.

He loved all of his nephews, nieces, in-laws, brothers and sisters.

Everyone meant the world to him. He still has many, many loving friends very close to his heart.

Daddy, Rest in Love

Tribute Wall

JS

“ Dear Yaya, Gloria and Mary:

Uncle Tony and his farm are legendary! Cookie told us so many stories about the uncle whom he respected and loved. I think Cookie looked to his Uncle Tony to emulate the qualities of perseverance, dignity and loyalty. I wil

---

Janine Sacramone - July 23, 2009 at 12:00 AM