

Antonio B. Martinez

June 13, 1943 - July 26, 2025

Antonio B. Martinez was born on June 13, 1943, to parents Jose and Magdalena Martinez in San Antonio, Texas. He married his beloved wife, Janie Martinez, and they spent 59 cherished years together. He went on to bask in the glory of God on July 26, 2025.

Antonio was a fun, warm-hearted person who always made everyone around him laugh. He was forever making new friends wherever he went. There wasn't a place he went where he couldn't find someone to chat with—sometimes for hours. He was always seen with his hat, and coffee in hand.

He is survived by his beautiful devoted wife, Janie Martinez; their sons, Mark Anthony (Leticia Murillo) Martinez, Charles Martinez, and Peter (Susan) Martinez; sisters, Dolores (Gilbert) Arevalo, and Mary Lou (Robert) Acosta; grandchildren, Destiny (Hugo) Granillo, Valerie Vicuna, Jeremy (Crystal) Martinez, Jeffrey Martinez, Chelsea (Pete) Martinez-Robles and David Martinez; great-grandchildren, Presley Lewter, Dodger Granillo, Aiden Martinez, Sofia Martinez, Matthew Martinez, Jayden Cruz, Levi Robles, and Aria Robles; numerous nieces and nephews; and his dog, Reina.

“ I only had the privilege of meeting you once or twice, but I remember the twinkle in your eye and your little mischievous grin. You were and are loved so much by your wife and sons. May you rest in peace. To the family, memories are such a comfort during difficult times such as this and I hope that the memories you have of your husband, dad and grandfather, bring you comfort and peace during this difficult time.

“ I pray for my father's soul to find peace. As a son, I wouldn't have asked for a better dad. It pains me to realize that you are no more. I will miss you forever. Love you so much Dad.
