

Apolinar Villanueva

July 23, 1927 - February 23, 2017

Apolinar S. Villanueva, 89, has passed away gently into the arms of the Lord on February 23, 2017 at his home in San Antonio, TX.

Apolinar was born on July 23, 1927 in Goliad, TX to Guadalupe and Isabelle Villanueva. Apolinar was a beloved husband to Hilaria, and a proud father of four, grandfather, and great grandfather.

Apolinar was a very loving and hard working man who was loved and respected by all. He was a dedicated parishioner of St. Catherines Catholic Church for over 45 years. You would often find him working in the yard or reminiscing about his past to his grandchildren. He always had a smile on his face. His favorite quote being, " It's good like a cigarette should" and " I am still kickin'"

Apolinar is survived by: sons Michael Anthony wife Elsa, Johnny Ray wife Elia and daughter Linda Susan husband Tony Hernandez. He is also survived by grand children: Laurin, John, Alyssa and Ruben and great grandson Davian Mora.

Viewing will be conducted at Mission Park South Thursday March 2, 2017 from 5:00 PM - 9:00 PM with rosary service at 7:00 PM. Funeral services will be held at St. Margaret Mary Friday March 3, 2017 at 2:00 PM.

In loving memory of oldest son Paul David and surviving wife Sylvia Villanueva.

The Villanueva family are deeply grateful for all acts of kindness and expressions of love shown during our time of bereavement. May God bless you and keep you.

“ *To my Sister-in-law Linda,
May God give you the strength to get you thru this time of need. You could not ask for a better daughter. I have memories of when you brought your Dad to visit my Daddy, and I will cherish them with much joy seeing them laughing. He is now gone to see our Lord
In peace, and will unite with your Mom now.
My Condolences to you and your family, May God bless you.
Your Sister-in- law Agnes Clutter & Husband Rick*
